Two Brooklyn drives of much venom in the second inning failed to escape fielders clutches. Smith sent a splitting liner to Herzog and bevore went a long way out for Hummel's stalwart clout. A good catch by Humphrey put Doyle aside in the third. Smodgrass drew another pass and was thrown out stealing. There was danger in the lifth, but Matty steered it off with able pitching. Hummel singled. He ined to steal. Meyers's throw was perfect and the umpire was in the act of waving Hummel out, but as Fletcher dropped the fall as he was putting it on Humphrey and Coulson succumbed to fadeaways and beigen popped to Meyers.

From their next defensive falter the Giants did not escape so well. Meyers does not the base at the time. Though not the easiest of throws to handle the ball came. Into Merkie's hands straight, but Merkie's hands straight, but

AFTER 44 YEARS!

In 1867 a large tract in the Bronx, offered for sale in partition, was bought by a guardian ad litem in the suit, for himself individually and this made the title bad.

The other day a builder failed because he had started a building operation on this property without a proper examination of the title. It had been through five hands since the blunder happened and no one had discovered it until it came to us.

Sculler Durnan Beats Hackett.

RAINY RIVER, Ont., Sept. 7. - In what was a listless walkaway race Eddie Durnan, the crack Toronto sculler, crossed the mark about eight lengths in front of Jack Hackett of Rainy River to-day. Durnan led by four lengths before half a mile had been covered. When the turning buoy was reached Hackett was so far out of his course that in making the turn he lost at least three lengths. Durnan will now challenge Dick Arnst for the championship of the world.
